thing you do, and the first Words you speak, tend to the Worship and Acknowledgment of Al-

commonly the Thoughts

Day do depend: There-

The Psalm.

THE Lord is loving unto every Man,
and his Mercy is over all his Works.

He forgiveth us all our Sins, and hath comfirmities.

His Loving-kindness is better than Life itself, and therefore shall

Blessed art thou,
Lord, who wilt not me.

As long as I live

manner, and lift up Hands in thy Name.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and Holy Ghost;

As it was in the Beginning,
is now, and shall evermore. Amen.

The Lesson.

Take heed that ye walk circumspectly, redeeming the Time, because the Days are evil. Be fervent in good Works, and serve the Lord with all gladness of Heart. Be patient in Tribulation, and continue instant in Prayer. Be

Courteous and Meek; and as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all Men, and whatsoever ye would that others should do unto you, do so to them; for this is the Law and the Prophets.

In the Morning. 23

A Devout Confession
of our Christian and Catholic Faith.

With Explications and Prayers relating there-unto.

I. I Believe in thee, O God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth; loving thee as my Father, reverence-ing thee as the Almighty, and committing my Soul and my Body to thee as to a faithful Creator.

24 In the Morning.

Creator. Thou art
thy, O Lord, to ree Glory, Honour,
Power, for thou
created all things, and thy Will's sake they and were created.

II. I believe in Thee
O thou King of Gl
the everlasting Son of the Father; and our L Jesus Christ, the G
Mystery of Godline
God manifest in Flesh, and sent into World for our eter
Salvation in the W
to come.

III. I believe that the

wast conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Blef-sed Virgin Mary without Spot of Sin, thereby to cleanse us from all Sin.

IV. I believe that thou didst suffer what otherwise we must have suffered for ever. That thou wast Crucified to set us free from the Curse of the Law.

That thou didst die,
and thereby take away
the Sting of Death.

That thou wast buried in the Grave, and hadst the Victory over it; to assure us that our Bodies

B shall

shall not corrupt the
for ever.

V. I believe that thou didst Descend into Hell
to triumph over it,
to free us from the
of ever coming into Place.

That the Third
thou didst rise again the Dead in our Nature the First-fruits of the
that are asleep in Graves, who are there
assured that they shall not sleep there ever.

VI. I believe that thou didst Ascend up into

Heaven, there to prepare a Place for us.

That thou now sittest at the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty, there to make Intercession for us, our only Advocate with the Father.

VII. I believe that thence thou shalt come to receive us, and to be the Judge of the Quick and the Dead, after which thy Kingdom shall have no End.

All this I stedfastly believe of thee, O my Blessed Saviour, beseech-ing thee to give me

B 2 Grace,

Grace, that I may

by frequent Meditathereon; and to thy urrection, by my
from Sin to Newne-Life: to thine Ascep- by seeking after things which be ab-
and to thy Coming Judgment, by judging self here, that I may be there condemned with the World.

VIII. I believe also in Thee, O Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, the Infuser of all Heavly Graces, and the Leader of thy Church in all the ways of Truth and Holiness.

IX. I believe therefore the Holy Catholick Church, the Mystical Body of CHRIST, whereof He is the only Head.

I believe the Communi- on of Saints, being joined together in Faith, Hope, and Charity, and mutually participating of another's Prayers.

X. I believe the mission of Sins in the World, given and sealed to us by the sacred ordinances of God.

XI. I believe the resurrection of our Bodies at the End of the World, be united to our Souls.

XII. And I believe in the Life Eternal in the World to come, where we shall be in Happiness with CHRIST for ever.
Amen.

RULES

FOR THE

AFTERNOON.

RULE

RULES and ADVERTISEMENTS how to employ your Time.

I.

*P*Ass the Day in such Employments as may be most meet and agreeable to that Condition of Life wherein God hath placed you.

II.

*C*ome not to the Place where Sin dwells, and avoid all corrupt Company whereto it resorts.
Religion hath no greater Enemy than conversing with such; of whom

whom your Heart tells you that there is neither Faith nor Fear of in them.

III.

Be careful to demean yourself affably and modestly towards all with whom you have just Occasion to converse.

Let not either your Actions or your Dispositions be vain and frivolous but tending either to improve your Judgment or to better your Affection.

V.

If you have the Government of a Family, take special heed that they live not disorderly or idly, to the Offence of Almighty God, and the Scandal of others.

And forget not (as often as you can) to be present, and to assist at the publick Offices and Divine Services of the Church, there to attend and perform the Homage and Worship of Almighty God, and to be instructed in his holy

holy Word; for that Duty and a Service highly pleasing to him.

*Remember (and you
much help yourself, if remember it) that are continually in Presence of God,
ought to live contin-
in his Fear, and in dience to his Comm-ments.*

VIII.

Upon all Occasions to you, exercise Charity, and let the Day pass you

out some good Work done by you, either of real Honour to God, or of real Charity to them that want it.

Afternoon retire yourself a while, and use the Psalm, Lesson, Hymn, and Prayers following.

UNto thee I lift up mine Eyes, O thou
that dwellest in the Heavens: My Soul waiteth still upon thee, that thou mayest blest me.

O hearken thou unto the Voice of my Calling;
my King and my God;
for unto Thee do I make my Prayers.

Shew thou me
Way that I should walk in, and teach me to the Thing that pleases Thee.

I will take heed to Ways, that I offend not in my Tongue; and I will make a Covenant with mine Eyes, that they hold not Vanity.

O let not my Feet steps err from the Path of thy Commandments.

But let my Delight be in walking after the Precepts of thy Law.

Thy Law is an unde-filed Law, converting the Soul, and giving Light unto the Eyes.

Keep thy Servant from all presumptuous Sins that they may not get the Dominion over me; and cleanse thou me from all my secret Faults.

That so I may be acceptable in thy Sight, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer.

Glory be to the Father, —

The Lesson.

IF Sinners entice thee do not thou come unto them. These Things doth the Lord abhor. a proud Look and a high Tongue, an Heart that devises Wickedness and is chief, a false Witness that speaketh not the Truth, whosoever soweth Dissension among others. In the multitude of Words there shall be Sin. Keep Innocence and do the Thing that is right, for that will bring a Man Peace at the last.

Let the same Mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus; and confess him to be the Lord, who was obedient to the Death of the Cross for the Redemption of Mankind, unto the Praise and Glory of God the Father.

The Hymn.

WH O more can
crave,
Than God for me hath done
To free a Slave,
That gave his only Son?
Bless'd be that Hour
C 4 When

When he repair'd
Loss,
I never will Forget my SAVIOUR
Cross.

The PRAYERS.

I.

O God, who know the Frailties and firmities of my weak-
ture, and in the midst

subject to the Decays the World, the Flesh, the Devil, and having Power of myself to be

I cannot continue in safety without thy Succour, preserve me evermore by thy Help and Goodness, and keep me both outwardly in my Body, and inwardly in my Soul; that among the sundry and manifold Dangers of this World, my Heart may be set to attain everlasting Salvation, and my Affections may surely there be fixed where true Joys are to be found, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II.

O God, the Strength of all that trust
thee, mercifully accept these my humble Supplications and Prayers; and grant me the help of thy Grace, that I may please Thee both in Will and Deed, and obtain Peace all the Days of my Life, through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, I give Thee most humble
Thanks, for that Thou hast vouchsafed favour ably to call me to the Knowledge of thy Grace, and Faith in thee. En-crease this Knowledge, and confirm this Faith in me evermore. Give me the Comfort of thy holy Spirit, and multiply upon me thy manifold Gifts of Grace, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Ghostly Strength, the Spirit of Knowledge and true Godliness; and fill me, O Lord, with the Spirit of thy holy Fear, through Christ our Lord,

Amen.

Confessions

Forgiveness of SIN.

A most devout Confession and Prayer for the Remission of Sins.

I.

I Have sinned before thee, O Lord my God, and done all Evil in thy sight. I have sinned Sins many in number, of many kinds, in many places, at many times, and often repeated. I have sinned large and great Sins, I have sinned heinous and presumptuous Sins; they are become burdensome and heavy, too heavy for me to bear, and their cry reacheth up to Heaven.

II.

II.

AND what fruit
I in those things whereof I am now accused? My Confusion daily before me, and Shame of my Face covered me.

MOREOVER, my Mind is troubled, and I am afraid of thy Judgments. Wo be unto me that I have done
these things.

SEE, O Lord,
how vile I am become
and what shall I say?

how shall I open my Mouth, or what shall I answer, seeing I have committed all these Sins?

V.

TO whom may I fly for Succour? Or who shall deliver me from the Body of this Death, and from the multitude of my Transgressions?

VI.

SINCE I can neither say nor do more, I will lift up mine Eyes to thee, from whom cometh all my Help.

VII.

VII.

IN many things we offend all, and justly deserve Punishment; but thy Mercy triumphs over thy Justice: and I have known Thee, Lord, thou hast been good and gracious to them that have deserved Evil.

VIII.

I Will therefore come boldly to thy Throne of Grace, that I may find Mercy in the Time of need.

IX.

HERE I insist, and from the dreadful Throne

Throne of thy Justice, I appeal unto the ever blessed Throne of thy Mercy.

X.

O Suffer me not to perish in my Sins. Lord carest thou not that I perish, who wilt that all shall be saved, and that none shall perish?

XI.

I Am thine, O save me. I am thine own Creature, the Work of thine own Hands, thy lowly Creature, thine humble Servant. O despise not thou the Work of thine own Hands.

XII.

BUT I am a Sinner,
and Thou, O God,
hearest not Sinners.

XIII.

YET consider, O
Lord, of what I am made: remember that I am but Flesh and Dust, frail and corruptible Flesh, and as the Dust before the Wind. Wilt thou break a bruised Reed? Wilt thou blast a Leaf driven to and fro? Wilt thou pursue the dry Stubble?
Or wilt thou hunt after a Flea? What shall I say or do unto thee, O thou Preserver

Preserver of the World?

XIV.

Wilt thou be angry with thy Servant that prayeth? Behold, I have heard that they said in Israel, "We will go to the King and say, Let our Souls live, it may be he will save us." Is any King more merciful than Thou?
Thou sparedst Abab, because he was humble,
spare me also, O Lord;
for I humble myself before thee.

XV.

I Cover not, I do not dissemble, I do not D 4 ex-

extenuate and lessen my Sins: I freely confesse them, I have done exceedingly amiss, I call it often to mind, and I condemn myself for it.

XVI.

SPare me, O God, and accept the Sacrifice of a broken Spirit, a contrite Heart, a troubled Mind, a wounded Conscience, and an afflicted Soul; because I have sinned against Thee.

XVII.

WILT Thou have Pity upon some,
and hast Thou made all others

others for nought? Shall thine Enemy say, Thou hast made us to kill us, or because thou hatest us,
or that thou canst not,
or wilt not save us?

XVIII.

FAR be this from Thee: But remember this, O Lord, how the Enemy hath reproached thee, and how the foolish People have thus blas-phemed thy Name.

XIX.

FOR what shall then become of thy great Name, of the Richness of thy Mercy, which is over all thy Works, of the Blood of thy Son, who died for the Sins of the World?

XX.

WHEN thou canst not for any other cause, yet for thy Mercy sake, for thine abundant Mercy in CHRIST, thou hast said that Thou wilt pardon us our Sins.

XXI.

WE say rightly our Fathers trusted in Thee: They trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them: Deliver me also for I have trusted in Thee.

XXII.

XXII.

I Will not let thee go, except thou bless me.
Jesus, thou Son of David, thou Son of GOD, have mercy upon me.

XXIII.

THINE Apostle hath not said in vain, that thou camest into the World to save Sinners.

XXIV.

NOW therefore, O
Lord, be merciful unto me a Sinner, and hear the Prayer and Supplication of thy Servant which I have made before thee, that thy Face may shine crament, lay aside all your fairs, and give yourself

Fix your Thoughts stedfastly upon God's infinite Greatness and your own Unworthiness to appear before Him.

And first (as Saint Paul hath directed you) examine yourself how you stand in the Faith, Profession and Practice of your Christian Religion, both before God and the World; how you have spent your Time, what Good or Evil you have done, what bad Inclinations you have resisted sisted and amended, and what Offences you have committed either against God or Man.

V.

Prefixing this Prayer to remember them, and to ask Pardon for them.

IV. I have often abused myself from the publick Worship and Service of his Holy Assembly and Sanctuary; wasting the Days that are hallowed to the Honour of his great Name.

V. I have not carried that Reverence and Regard, nor given that Obedience which I ought to them whom God has placed over me, seeking rather my own will and pleasure.

Pleasure, than submitting myself to their lawful Precepts and Advice. I have too much disregarded the Persons of my Betters, and been unthankful to them that have deserved well of me.

VI. I have not done to all others, as I would that they should do to me; I have envied their Welfare, the better and more prosperous Life of others above my own. I have often let the reins of my Passion loose to Anger, Malice, and Revenge; uncharitably delighting

lighting in the mischief and destruction of my own private or peculiar Enemies. When out of my abundance I might have relieved others that were in want, I have many times neglected it.

my fancy and affections

I have not held my

I have not carefully eschewed the Occasions corrupt and vain Affections: I have not preferred

Godliness to be my greatest Gain, nor been content with that which I possessed.

Flattery and used it towards others; of many I have had evil Suspitions, and given rash Judgments upon them. Upon myself I have set a greater value than I deserved, and seemed better than I was; that I might gain a false Reputation from others. And I have often suffered Truth to be gainsaid.

X. I am guilty of many inordinate Desires, and irregular Affections.

And wo is me, that in all these things I have offended; for if in all these things my Heart should not condemn me, God is greater than my Heart and knoweth all things. But I confess them, and confessing am sorry for them, and being sorry for them, am ready to leave them, his Faith.

I believe, Lord help mine unbelief.

I Believe that God our Heavenly Father did
of his tender Mercy give his only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer Death upon the Crofs for the Redemption of the World. I believe that he made thereby the Oblation of himself once offered, a perfect Sacrifice and Satisfaction for our Sins. I believe that this Sacrament was ordained for the con-lieve that I shall here partake of the spiritual Food

Bread of Life that came down from Heaven, the Blood that hath been carried up into the holy Places, and the Cup of Eternity. For they that eat of this Bread, and drink of this Cup, shall live for ever.

The Prayer.

O My God, what are we, that thou so

regardedst us to give thy self for us, to give thy self to us, to be one with us, that we may have Life in us, even Life immortal, which will quicken us and raise us up at the last Day? O my Lord, I am not worthy, not worthy
 the least of thy Mercies;
 how much less of this,
 which is the greatest,
 greater than the World,
 greater than the Heavens, greater than all the Treasures of Heaven and Earth; but, I beseech Thee, look upon me in the greatness of thy Mercies,

cies, not weighing my Merits, but pardoning mine Offences. Amen.

III.

Charity.

THIS is a Sacrament of Love, and this is thy Commandment,
 that we should love one another, even as Thou hast loved us; for we being many, are one Body, whereof Christ our Lord is the Head.

O Thou blessed and undivided Trinity,
 which teacheth us that all

all our Doings without Love and Unity are nothing worth, send into all our Hearts that most excellent Gift of Charity, and inflame our Souls with the celestial Fire of thy Love, that living together in unity of Spirit and the Bond of Peace among ourselves
we may perfectly love
Thee, and worthily mag-

O Blessed Lord, who

 Mercy didst vouchsafe to thy just Judgment hast permitted our Sins and Pollies to root it up;

 be pleased at last to re-ther. Lord, look down from Heaven, the Ha-

and behold the Ruins of a desolate Church; and compassionate to see her in the Dust. Behold her, O Lord, not only
broken but crumbled, divided into so many Sects and Factions, that she no longer represents the Ark of the God of Israel, where the Cove-

were conserved, but the Ark of Noah, filled with all various Sorts of unclean Beasts: And to complete our Misery and Guilt, the Spirit of Division hath insinuated itself as well into our Affections as our Judg-

Discipleship which thou recommendest to us is cast off, and all the con-ness, Anger and Clamour, called in to maintain and widen our Breaches. O Lord, how long shall we thus violate and defame that Gospel of Peace that we profess! How long shall we thus madly defeat

feat ourselves, lose that Christianity which we pretend to strive for! O thou which makest Men to be of one Mind in an House, be pleased so to unite us, that we may be perfectly joined together in the same Mind, and in the same Judgment.
 And now that in Civil Affairs there seems some Aptness to a Composure, O let not our Spiritual Differences be more un-reconcileable. Lord, let not the roughest Winds blow out of the Sanctuary, let not those which should be Embassadors for Peace, still sound a Trumpet for War; but thou reveal Thyself to all our Elijahs in that small Voice, which may teach them to echo Thee in the like meek treating with others.

 Lord, let no unseasonable Stiffness of those that are in the Right, no perverse Obstinacy of those that are in the Wrong,
 hinder the closing of our Wounds; but let the one instruct in Meeknesses, and be thou pleased to give the other Repenitance to the Acknowledgment of the Truth. To this End do thou, O Lord, mollify all exasperated Minds, take off all Animosities and Prejudices, Contempt and Heart-burnings, and by uniting their Hearts prepare for the reconciling their Opinions: And that nothing may intercept the clear sight of thy Truth, Lord, let all private and secular Designs be totally rejected, that Gain may no longer be the Measure of our Godliness; ness; but that the one great and common Concomitant of Truth and Peace may be unanimously and vigorously pursued. Lord, the Hearts of all Men are in thy Hands, O be thou pleased to let thy Spirit of Peace over-shadow the Minds of all contending Parties; and if it be thy Will, restore this Church to her pristine State, renew her Days as of old; let her escape out of Egypt be so entire, that not an Hoof may be left behind: But if thy Wisdom dom see it not yet a Season for so full a Deliverance, Lord, defer not, we beseech thee, such a degree of it, as may at least secure her a Being; if she cannot recover her Beauty, yet, O Lord grant her Health, such a Soundness of Constitution as may preserve her from Dissolution. Let thy Providence find out some good Samaritans to cure her present Wounds: And to whomsoever thou shalt commit that important Work, Lord, give them skilful skilful Hands and compassionate Hearts; direct them to such Applications as may most speedily, and yet most soundly heal the Hurt of the Daughter of Sion: and make them so advert to the Interests both of Truth and Peace, that no lawful Condescension may be omitted, nor any unlawful made. And thou who art both the wonderful Counsellor and Prince of Peace, to guide and prosper all pacific Endeavours, that all our Distractions may be composed, and our Jerusalem may again become a City at Unity in itself; that those happy primitive Days may at length revert, wherein Vice was the only Heresy; that all our intestine Contentions may be converted into a vigorous Opposition of our common Enemy; our unbrotherly Feuds into a Christian Zeal against all that exalts itself against the Obedience of Christ. Lord hear us, and ordain Peace for us, even for his Sake whom Thou

Thou hast ordained our Peacemaker, Jesus Christ
 our Lord.

Prayer II.

O Most gracious Lord, who dost not afflict willingly, nor grieve the Children of Men, who smitest not till the Importunity of our Sins enforce thee, and then correctest in Measure;
 we thy unworthy Creatures humbly acknowledge that we have abundantly tasted of this Patience and Lenity of thine. To what an enormous

enormous Height were our Sins arrived, ere thou didst begin to visit them! and when thou couldest no longer forbear, yet mastering thy Power, thou hast not proportioned thy Vengeance to our Crimes,
 but to thy own gracious Design of reducing and reclaiming us. Lord, had the first Stroke of thy Hand been exterminating, our Guilt had justified the Method;
 but thou hast proceeded by such easy and gentle degrees, as witness how much

much thou desiredst to be interrupted and shew us that all that sad Weight we have long groaned under, hath been accumulated, only by our own Incorrige-bleness. It is now, O Lord, these many Years that this Nation hath been in the Furnace, and yet our Dross wastes not but increases; and it is owing only to thy unspeakable Mercy, that we who would not be purified are not consumed; that we remain a Nation, who cease not

to be a most sinful and provoking Nation. O Lord, let not this Long-suffering of thine serve only to upbraid our Obstinacy, and enhance our Guilt; but let it at last have the proper Effect on us, melt our Hearts, and lead us to Repentance. And, O that this may be the Day for us,
thus to discern the things,
that belong to our Peace!
that all who are (yea,
and all who are not) cast down this Day in an external Humiliation, may by the Operation of thy

thy mighty Spirit have their Souls laid prostrate before thee in a sincere Contrition! O thou who cast out of the very Stones raise up Children unto Abraham, work our stony flinty Hearts into such a Temper as may be susceptible of the Impressions of thy Grace, that all the Sinners in Sion may tremble; that we may not by a persevering Obstinacy seal to ourselves both temporal and eternal Ruin, but instead of our mutinous complaining at the Punishments

nishments of our Sins,
 search and try our Ways,
 and turn again to the Lord: O be thou pleased to grant us this one grand fundamental Mercy, that we who so impatiently thirst after a Change without us, may render that possible and safe by this better and more necessary Change within us; that our Sins may not, as they have so often done, interpose and eclipse that Light which now begins to break out upon us.
 Lord, thy Dove seems
 to

to approach us with an Olive-Branch in her Mouth: O let not our Faith and Noisomness
 chase her away; but grant us that true Repentance which may alone thee, and that Christian Charity which may reconcile us with one another. Lord, let not our Breach either with thee, or among ourselves, be incurable, but by making up the first, prepare us for the Healing of the latter. And because, O Lord, the Way to make us one
 Fold

Fold is to have one Shepherd; be pleased to put us all under the Conduct of him to whom that Charge belongs; bow the Hearts of this People as of one Man, that the only Contention may be, who shall be most forward in bringing back our David. O let none reflect on their past Guilt, as an Argument to persevere, but repent, and to make their Return so sincere as may qualify them, not only for his but thy Mercy. And, Lord, be pleased pleased so to guide the Hearts of all who shall be intrusted with that great Concernment of settling this Nation, that they may weigh all their Deliberations in the Balance of the Sanctuary, that Conscience, not Interest, may be the ruling Principle, and that they may render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's; that they may become Healers of our Breaches and happy Repairers of the sad sad Ruins both in Church and State: And grant, O Lord, that as those Sins which made them are become National, so the Repentance may be National also, and that evidenced by the proper Fruits of it, by Zeal for restoring the Rights both of Thee and thine Anointed. And do thou, O Lord, so dispose all Hearts, and remove all Obstacles, that none may have the Will, much less the Power, to hinder his peaceable Restitution.

And, Lord, let him bring with him an Heart so entirely devoted to thee, that he may with his own Honour only as a Means to advance thine. O let the Precepts and Example of his Blessed Father never depart from his Mind; and as thou
wert pleased to perfect the one by suffering, so perfect the other by acting thy Will; that he may be a blessed Instrument of replanting the Power instead of the Form

Form of Godliness among us, of restoring Christian Virtue in a profane and almost barbarous Nation. And if any wish him for any distant Ends; if any desire his Shadow as a Shelter for their Riots and Licentiousness, O let him come a great, but happy Defeat to all such, not bring Fuel, but Cure to their inordinate Appetites; and by his Example as a Christian, and his Authority, as a King, so invite to Good, and restrain from Evil, that he may not only release us from temporal but our spiritual Bondage, suppress those foul and scandalous Vices which were so long captivated by us, and by securing our forward, provide for the perpetuating our outward Peace. Lord establish thou his Throne in Righteousness; make him a signal Instrument of thy Glory and our Happiness, and let him reap the Fruits of it in Comfort 168 Prayers for, &c.

Comfort here, and in Bliss hereafter; so that this Earthly Crown
may serve to enhance and enrich his Heavenly. Grant this, O King of Kings, for the Sake and Intercession of our Blessed Mediator Jesus Christ.
